

THE METROPOLITAN BRANCH TRAIL

Fort Totten to Takoma

VIRTUAL PUBLIC MEETING
TUESDAY, JULY 18, 2023, 6:00 PM

PROJECT OVERVIEW

When completed, the Metropolitan Branch Trail (MBT), will be an 8-mile trail that runs from Union Station in the District of Columbia to Silver Spring in Maryland. Following the Metropolitan Branch Line of the Baltimore and Ohio (B&O) Railroad, the trail passes through numerous vibrant and historic neighborhoods as well as connecting to the National Mall. The MBT is an important transportation route providing connections to homes, work and play as well as access to seven Metro stations. Current plans include connections to the area's trail network such as the Capital Crescent Trail, Anacostia Trails System, and integration into the East Coast Greenway.
